The correct interpretation of these results is:

Lysozyme or Eosinophil Derived Neurotoxin in urine

The cathodic band seen in this case is due to the presence of Lysozyme or Eosinophil Derived Neurotoxin in urine. Elevated levels of Lysozyme can be found in patients with monocytic and myelomonocytic leukemia.